

Climate-Aware Investing in Global Public Equities

Carolyn R. Eagle, Head of Americas, Sustainable Equity Index Product, FTSE Russell

Carolyn joined FTSE Russell's Sustainable Investment team in 2018 and currently serves as the Head of Americas for the Sustainable Equity Index Product group. She is responsible for ESG and climate equity index product development and strategy. In this role, she works closely with the firm's North American asset owner and asset manager clients to achieve their sustainability and investment objectives. Prior to joining FTSE Russell, Carolyn worked for an ESG-focused asset manager, Sustainable Insight Capital Management (SICM).

Tony Campos, Head of Sustainable Investment, Index Investments Group, FTSE Russell

Tony works closely with asset managers and asset owners around the world to help implement SI objectives into index-based investment solutions. Tony has worked in SI since he joined FTSE in 2004 and has held previous roles including leading product management in the Americas and overseeing global ESG research and company engagement.
